

Talkin' to My Restless Heart

Scott Eversoll

I've been dreaming of those ocean waves
Sand in my toes and the wind in my face
Traveling the highway toward the better days
Just live in the moment it's all we need today

I've been thinking of those wide-eyed gazes
That we had back when we were teenagers and we knew that we could do anything or be anyone, just as long as we sing

Do you remember the days we fell in love
With the open road

Wherever we're going, we'll be there soon
Relax and let go and just enjoy the view
Live every moment, like it's your last
Relax and let go, and rest your restless heart

And every moment spent lying awake
Dreaming about life and yesterday
Just let it all go and fade away
Learn from your mistakes
I want to hear your sing

I've been dreaming of those ocean waves
Sand in my toes and the wind in my face

Do you remember the days we fell in love
With the open road

Wherever we're going, we'll be there soon
Relax and let go and just enjoy the view
Live every moment, like it's your last
Relax and let go, and rest your restless heart

Rest your restless heart
Rest your restless heart
Rest your restless heart
Rest your restless heart
