Drag

Cat's Eyes

My friends all say I've changed
Of what few remained
I thought that they would come round
But they'll say your name
And that you're dragging me down
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
You only show me how
And I (?)
But as I hum to you through the crowd
They threatened to tell
Why you've been dragging me down
Why you've been dragging me down
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
The things we do when we're together
If they ever knew
They would keep us apart
They would keep us apart
They would keep us apart
They would keep us apart
They
