

Cheater of the Year (Single Version)

Evan Taubenfeld

You told your friends,
You told my friends,
That you got drunk and spent the night
With some guy you didn't know
At all Now you are so resisting,
Your story's inconsistent,
You swear you only kissed him
But I know it's a lie You tried to be G rated,
But that's not how I played it in my head
And you frown like you've been crying
But I know that you're lying again And this is the part when you disappear,
Is a chichi break up here
Yeah, we're D O N E
Tell me how it feels to be the cheater of the year
And this is the part when you shed a tear,
Let me make it very clear,
That we're O V E are
I know who you really are
You're the cheater of the year I hope that you're happy,
You've ruined everything we had
I want my spinfire t-shirt back You know what my stance is,
I don't do second chances
And all those high school dances
I could have gone stag You tried to be G rated,
But that's not how I played it in my head
Oh Ooh' And this is the part when you disappear,
Is a chichi break up here
Yeah, we're D O N E
Tell me how it feels to be the cheater of the year
And this is the part when you shed a tear,
Let me make it very clear,
That we're O V E are
I know who you really are
You're the cheater of the year Cheater of the year
Is good to know that you'll be sorry And this is the part when you disappear,
Is a chichi break up here
Yeah, we're D O N E
Tell me how it feels to be the cheater of the year
And this is the part when you shed a tear,

Let me make it very clear,
That we're O V E are
I know who you really are
You're the cheater of the year
