

Baby Please

Badfinger

She's a long, tall, skinny-minny
Never says a word, but she knows
She never tells me why
She's clever and she lets it showShe's an all around, bawdy-clawdy
Everyday collector of dreams
But she never tells me why
She's clever and she loves to pleaseStay, baby, stay
Play, baby, play
Won't you please?She's the old soul of rock 'n' roll
She's every kind of woman you see
She never tells me how
She's so clever as she has to beShe's an all night, treat me right
Answer to my lonely day
She never tells me why
She's clever and she always playsStay, baby, stay
Play, baby, play
Won't you please?Yeah, oh yeah
StayStay, baby, stay
Play, baby, play
Won't you please?
Please
