You Beat All I've Ever Seen

Rhonda Vincent

Ive looked the world over in search of a dream
For someone who cares just for me
My heart was in chains but your love set me free
Darlin', you beat all Ive ever seenA million tomorrows wont change how I feel Theres nothin or no one in between
The love that you give is so precious and real
Cause you beat all Ive ever seenIf you were to follow my footprints through life
Theyd lead to the arms that hold me tonight
All the worlds wonders mean nothing to me
Darlin, you beat all Ive ever seenIf you were to follow my footprints through life
Theyd lead to the arms that hold me tonight
All the worlds wonders mean nothing to me
Cause you beat all Ive ever seen
