

Shame On Us

Jonatha Brooke

It's the little failures every day that take you far away
Take you far away from here
Fail to notice, fail to speak, fail to toe the line,
Fail to keep the coast clearYou'll kick the tiny silver shoes and linger in the hall
The light's out in the living room
You'll make some coffee then you'll go, drive blindly toward the moon
All the monuments in bloomI guess we didn't fool anyone, for any part of the timeShame on us, shame on love Shame on us, shame on loveSometimes resignation finds me, sometimes it's just fear poisoning the Sound of your name
There's nothing left here to amuse me no one left to blame
All the players folded from the gameI guess we didn't fool anyone, for any part of the timeShame on us, shame on love
Shame on us, shame on love
Shame on us, shame on love
Shame on us, shame on love
(I'll be tender, I'll be true, still in love with you)
