Cast Out

Liege Lord

How much more can I take they don't realize their mistake
For these chains and shackles barred on me
A condemned man but why they're all deaf to my cry
And choose to end my life discreetlyAll of the facts aren't clear my terrible fate grows near Decision of the highest court to the gallows or the chair
The laws choice so unfair my sanity's mend is torn apartA man's life has faded away so this great price I'll pay
For I have been cast outSelf defense is my plight to judge my way as right
To rid my guilt and fight my way no time left I must escape
No chance to hesitate a fugitive with no laws to obey
