Man Fading

Kenna

I need to be brilliant, electric
I wanted to be natural
This God should be fantastic
Let's start a revolution, a true revolution
I haven't felt the same
Since I arrived, I haven't slept a winkI'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it allI'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lightsI need to be elected, perfected
Needs beyond the blue
Feel the satisfaction
I want to be a light source, a blaring night force
I haven't felt the same
Since I arrived I haven't slept a winkAnd this is how it starts
Before we lose it all
I know we're not coming
God knows when I'm goneI'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it allI'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lightsWell, this is how it starts
Before we lose it all
I know we're not coming
God knows when I'm goneI'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it allI'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it allI'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on

The neon lights have got it allI'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lights
