

Point Counterpoint

Dogwood

Has time forgotten my face?
Stilled I'm not through
I feel I've myself to blameI can't escape your name
All of it, my own shame
I feel time moving onSmall words and big motives
All so untrue
And I've nothing left to sayYou've taken my words away
Save for another day
When we'll be different nowTime for another way
Suffer my own mistakes
Dream of another day
You'll think differentWhy did you go away?
The sun won't come out today
You've taken my world away
Why did you go away?
