

Satellites

Sugar Ray

Easy I'm gonna fade away
I'm gonna find my way around
Knee deep I get no where from sleep
I'm running out of sheep to count
Not right I sit alone at night
And on the bed I write it out
No time for giving up that line
Or making up your mind
You've got a right to pine about I'm feeling you tonight
In the dream I think I'm falling
Bouncing off, of the satellite
In the dream I think I'm flying
I feel you, I feel you
Reach out and touch me, will you?
I'm feeling you tonight No saving for a rainy day
When all of what they say you're out
No fame but all the rights the same
They're gonna know my name in town
No reason for another season
For some other teasing moans
No favor to the one that gave her
Made a morning haven
Inspired to save us all I'm feeling you tonight
In the dream I think I'm falling
Bouncing off, of the satellite
In the dream I think I'm flying
I feel you, I feel you
Reach out and touch me, will you?
I'm feeling you tonight
Ooh yeah I can see you touch the sun
Make a wish and don't tell anyone
Ooh yeah
Then my eyes start focusing
Then my eyes start focusing
Then my eyes start focusing I can feel you
In the dream I think I'm falling
I can see you
In the dream I think I'm flying
I feel you, I feel you

Reach out and touch me, will you?
I'm feeling you tonight Reach out to me
I could feel you
Reach out to me
I could feel you
Reach out to me
I could feel you I'm feeling you tonight
In the dream I think I'm falling
In the dream I think I'm falling
In the dream I think I'm falling
In the dream I think I'm flying { It's pirates dude, it's pirates
It sounds like that right, how does the verse go?
We do it every night
No you don't
That's all you do, oh oh the Italian
Wait, I'm sorry ya, wait, let me fiddle that
Hey }
