Closing In

Roebeck

So much time has past between what has gone and what has come to be,And though you play your part so well,
I see through you it's no mystery,You've got your eyes closed,
I feel so exposed,
I'm losing all control,'Cause you're closing in,
I'll turn and watch you go,
You're closing in,
And this is letting go.Been lost in this, so far away, a distant flicker shows the light of day,
I'm inside out and upside down, hurting now despite myself,
You've got your eyes closed,
I feel so exposed,
I'm losing all control,'Cause you're closing in,
I'll turn and watch you go,
You're closing in,
And this is letting goAnd I'll hold it all inside - I'll hold it inside away from,
I'll hold it all inside away from, you (this is letting go)You're closing in,
I'll turn and watch you go,
You're closing in,
And this is letting go.You're closing in,
This is letting go.You're closing in,
This is letting go.
