

Cowboy Love Song

Josh Kelley

Oh I've heard creations sing
And it brought me to my knees
Still it just can't seem to find a song as beautiful as you
I see most every kind of sunrise
Make the toughest cowboy cry
Still it just can't seem to paint the sky as beautiful as you
Hallelujah, you're my angel
[?] and I believe
That there must be someone out there
Hallelujah, you're my angel
Oh I've felt the winter's cold
Could freeze a man to his bones
Never have I shaken more than when I first held you
Oh I've loved, and I have lost
Broken bridges I have crossed
Now I'm in debt to all that brought me right here with you
Hallelujah, you're my angel
[?] and I believe
That there must be someone out there
Hallelujah, you're my angel
Where loneliness, we begin
My heart and soul can't hold it in
Hallelujah, you're my angel
[?] and I believe
That there must be someone out there
Hallelujah, you're my angel
Hallelujah
You're my angel
