

Ray

Daughn Gibson

My first child stumbled home
And woke me up when he hit the floor
    He looked like a movie star
But he grew up to be totally worthlessRay, let's go
    Towards the waves
    Follow me
And knock this offHis mother, God rest her soul
    Had three doctors and fought 'em all
    She gave him a nice keepsake
    But I think he lost it
    Somewhere in Vegas
