Sometimes

Nicole C. Mullen

Sometimes, sometimes I'm just
Runnin' so fast that I can't touch the ground
I'm spinning faster than a merry go round
I find myself in the lost and foundAnd sometimes, sometimes I'm just Callin' your name and I don't know why
Holdin' my head cryin' my oh my
Up and down like the tide but you're theSame yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent ways
Same yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent ways'Cause sometimes, sometimes I'm just Being so good I can hardly stand it
Everything goes like I planned it
Hold that thought while I get candidSometimes, sometimes I jump
Outta the pan, into the fire
Get my foot stuck in the mire
Lord you must get tired but you're the, you're theSame yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent ways
Same yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent waysYou're the alpha, the omega
The beginning and the end
You're my father, you're my brother
You're like no other, my best friend, yeahI know, I know, I know, I know
Excuse me while I play a little bit
I know, I know, I know yeahSame yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent ways
Same yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent waysSame yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent ways
Same yesterday and tomorrow won't change
All your excellent waysSometimes, sometimes I'm just
