

You Are Unstoppable

Conchita Wurst

You don't know me, I don't know you
That's what we tell ourself inside of our little heads
We could never love again
You don't know me, I don't know you
That's what it's gonna be if you let yourself get in the way
Of what the child inside you saysAnd if you had another bad romance
Give it another go
It could be beautiful
Wouldn't you would like to know?Sometimes you just gotta leap, yeah
Jump out and just feel the breeze, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are
Sometimes it's just gonna hurt, yeah
But you gonna live and learn, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are unstoppableSo take a breath and just dive in Keep on climbing
Scars are a part of you
We can learn to understand
Carry your heart in your handAnd you will have another grand romance
Like it's do or die
Never giving in
Always let your heart winSometimes you just gotta leap, yeah
Jump out and just feel the breeze, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are
Sometimes it's just gonna hurt, yeah
But you gonna live and learn, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are unstoppableYou don't know me, I don't know you
Yeah, we just wanna be loved
We just have to be loved
We're not getting enoughSometimes you just gotta leap, yeah
Jump out and just feel the breeze, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are
You are
Sometimes it's just gonna hurt, yeah
But you gonna live and learn, yeah
You're stronger than you believe you are

You are unstoppable
You are, you are unstoppable
