Zurich (My love)

Martin Levac

All that I have ever dreamed of just seems to become true the reason for it all is obvious when I 'm close to you now every day I feel that nothing 's more important this happiness deal is shinning in for real out of the blue

After all these nights of crying light finally comes through the darkness my love

Now every day I hear your voice in my ear saying it's alright because of you I feel strenght growing inside me night after night ou ou ou ou

Now everyday it seems that all I have to do is be with you for happiness to stay that's all I all I have to do.....

tou dou dou.....
