Spotlight

Athenaeum

Know yourself
Better than your favorite book on that shelf
'Cause you are more than what you seem to beYou can be Stronger than the biggest ship out at sea
But you'll move on and sail through me I believeGoodnight step into the spotlight
Overcoming stage fright and my fear
Bad dream cover of a magazine
Idol to a million teens, perfect lifeBut we can't part
'Cause you have put an arrow straight through my heart
I'm a basket case with a shopping cart incompleteBut it's too late my brother
For I've been watching you
It's too late to discover
Your life is almost throughGoodnight step into the spotlight
Overcoming stage fright and my fear
Bad dream cover of magazine
Idol to a million teens, perfect lifeBut we can't part
'Cause you have put an arrow straight through my heart
I'm a basket case with a shopping cart
