

Wishing I Was Lucky

Wet Wet Wet

He would swear by his mouth, Almighty I was living in a world of make believe
When my best friend wrote and told me
That there may be a job in the city I was living in a world of make believe
When my best friend wrote and told me
That there may be a job in the city
And you never told me He would dream about another scheme
About another sordid hall of dreams
About a man whos king of industry He would swear by his mouth Almighty
He would buy the best but never something new
And he never told me I like kicking in the gutter and wishing I was lucky
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky
Oh, I like kicking in the gutter
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky Its the only life I know Lie, lie, lie is all you ever do
To make me wanna push on through Cry, cry, cry is all I ever do Say you wanna make me push on through I like kicking in the gutter and wishing I was lucky
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky
Oh, I like kicking in the gutter
Wishing I was lucky, I was wishing I was lucky Kicking in the gutter
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky Its the only life I know My best friend wrote and told me so
He said that there may be a job in the city
Yeah, yeah yeah, oh baby I like kicking in the gutter and wishing I was lucky
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky
I like kicking in the gutter, wishing I was lucky
I was wishing I was lucky Kicking in the gutter
Wishing I was lucky, wishing I was lucky Hey, son go, hey, son go to the city
Hey, son go, hey, son go to the city
Hey, son go, hey, son go to the city
Hey, son go, hey, son go to the city
