

After Glow (Album)

Foals

I know I could not last very long at all
Without you here to break my fall I know I could not stand alone for very long
Without you there to take my call
'Cause you were better than whatever came before
Before you ran out and left me on the 100th floor Get out, and go and find everyone you cared for
They, won't be there to see tomorrow
Get out, don't forget everything you cared for
For it, won't be nothing more tomorrow No I could not do the things I did before
Leave you waiting there, by that open door
You were better than whatever came before
Without you here and my heart broken to the core Get out, and go and find everyone you cared for
They, won't be there to see tomorrow
Get out, don't forget everything you cared for
For it, won't be nothing more tomorrow No I could not stand to be alone for long
There's something missing in the ever afterglow
You were better than whatever came before
Without you here to save me, to save me from the dark Get out, and go and find everyone you cared for
They, won't be there to see tomorrow
Get out, don't forget everything you cared for
For it, won't be nothing more tomorrow
