Show Me

Default

From the start
We swore that we'd never involve the heart
But time, time goes by
And I fall to pieces when you're not by my side
Should have known better
That you'd be the one to do this to me
Should have known better
Cuz I need u now
I need you to
Show me
I'm ready for everything
Show me
The love that she never gave
Tell me
That you'll give me what I need
Show me I am the one
Will you show me I am the one
That I am the one
I'm in, in too deep
I'm tired of hiding this secret I keep
But I, I can't lie
When I'm here without you
The world don't mean anything
Should have known better
That you'd be the one to do this to me
Should have known better
Cuz I need u now
I need you to

Show me
I'm ready for everything
Show me
The love that she never gave
Tell me
That you'll give me what I need
Show me I am the one
Will you show me I am the one
To be there when you need my help
To lift you when you are feeling down

To give you what you've never known
I promise that I won't let you go
Cuz I am the one
Show me
I'm ready for everything
Show me
The love that she never gave
Tell me
That you'll give me what I need
Show me I am the one
Show me
Show me
The love that she never gave
Show me
Show me I am the one
Will you show me I am the one
Please show me
Cuz I am the one
