Another Year (Album Version)

Leo Sayer

Oh it's twelve o'clock
On the old grey wall
Yet another year
'75 is hereI hear all the people celebrating
Another year
Oh Darkness, darkness
Inside my headI'm on my own again
That's what I think I said
This place is just a one-horse town
So let the rain fall downYear and year again
I'll be sitting here reflecting
How nothing's changed
But am I still the samePeople blow up all around me
Yet I remain
Nothing's changed
Another day beginsThe same old same again
It's like some movie scene
I know it all frame by frame
I'll try to figure out what it meansSome other day
Now my diary
Is looking back at me
Oh it's another year'76 is here
I'm watching all the people celebrating
Another year
It's another yearAnother year
Another year
