

Lips of Blood

The 69 Eyes

Dream dream dream my child
Dream of passion becomes alive
In a dream I saw you smile
In a dream worthwhile
In this dream we cannot hide
In this dream alongside
Dream dream dream my child
Dream of passion becomes divineDianaI just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lipsDream dream dream my child
Dream of shadows become alive
In a dream I followed your kind
In a dream dark side
In this dream we can be found
In this dream blood bound
Dream dream dream my child
Dream of shadows become all mineDianaI just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips
