I'mma change your life, I'mma change it (yo)
I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it (Hustle Gang homie)
I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it (real talk)
I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it (no bullshit)
I'mma change your life (life) You used to dealing with basic bitches
Basic shit all the time
I'm a new classic, upgrade your status
From a standby to a frequent flyer
Hop out your past life
And I'll renovate your future
Then I integrate my genius shit
We purchasin' not perusing
Yeah I love your hustle, baby
Just let me add a little bit of muscle, baby
Joint venture, we'll partner up until the shares are up
And I up your wages
On a private island, Dolo
One across the Cono
Them broads before me was locals
Through customs accustom your wardrobe, damn
Stamped passports where they all pass ports
Til the clocks fast forward
There'll be dark blue shores
Where they don't do chores
We just get chauffeured
Damn, this is the life
Exclusive shit with all access granted
In the country where the accents are grand
And they landin' on top of all the mansions! I'mma change your life, I'mma change it

I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it
I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it
I'mma change your life (life)
I'mma change your life, I'mma change it
I'mma change your life (life)If you could listen more than you speak
I get you everything that you need
I'm talking 'bout red bottoms LV
Even extensions plugs in your weave
I be blowing on strong weed when we ride
And everybody just lookin'
But ain't nann nigga gon' holla
They like "Nah shawty, she tooken"
I'mma get you you up out that corner shop
Put you up in Neiman Marcus where you supposed to shop
Hey let me show you that watch you supposed to wear,
Hey get up out that Honda Civic get your ass in here
Tell your Mom and Dad that you strange
Don't worry 'bout it you got it
You fly over in coach and fly back in a jet,
Hustle Gang on your chest,
Ain't no time for no stressWe spend our winters in the Summer of Australia
Eating crumpets with the sailors
On acres without the neighbors
We fast-forward four years more
We a long way from piss poor
And all the shit that we endured
I told you what you was in for soI'mma change your life, I'mma change it
