

In My Sleep

Almah

Down
You let me down
You will take nobody down again
Endless lives
Creeping lives
Infectious souls don't put me out of the game
Tear us apart and let's see who will rise again...
Yeah! Loud
Cry out loud
Scream and shout to give you one more chance
Now you fight
You'll arise
Use this chance to learn and to be heard
Tear us apart and let's see who will rise again
Hide from the mirror 'cause you know we are all to blame
Face
A new day
As one minute, there's no tomorrow
In my sleep
I awake
And I wish I could see there's no sorrow anymore
Fight
For your life
Set you free from the oppression's nails
Live your life
Leave or die
Get the spirit of the freedom ways
Tear us apart and let's see who will rise again
Hide from the mirror 'cause you know we are all to blame
Face
A new day
As one minute, there's no tomorrow
In my sleep
I awake
And I wish I could see there's no sorrow anymore
Down
You let me down
You will take nobody down again
Endless lives
Creeping lives
Infectious souls don't put me out of the game
Tear us apart and let's see who will rise again
Hide from the mirror 'cause you know we are all to blame
Face
A new day
As one minute, there's no tomorrow
In my sleep
I awake
And I wish I could see there's no sorrow anymore
