

Naked

Bon Jovi

My friend had a girlfriend. She liked her drink
Sucked the head off her lager. Threw me a wink
And she said to me "Buddy, what's your sign?"
I was off I was runnin'. Knocked me clean off my feet
Her tongue kept on selling. What any blind man could see
I just kept on stumbling through the stop signs
She said "What you hiding underneath that shirt?"
Right behind the buttons there's a heart that hurts
Adam's evening left the curse. Take it off make it work
Naked - Naked - Just get back to basics
Naked - Face it - You can't fake it when you're Naked - Face it. All I'm saying. The tail you been chasing
Put the K back in kink. Threw a coin in her jukebox
I started to think. She just smiled and offered me a peace sign
How far you gonna run in those designer shoes
The soul with holes ain't gonna be the one you lose
I don't know which one is worse. Adam, me or you
Naked - Naked - Just get back to basics
Naked - Face it - You can't fake it when you're Naked - Face it. All I'm saying.
Take it, embrace it
Baby, here we are. Can't you almost... taste it
Naked - Naked - Just get back to basics
Naked - Face it - You can't fake it when you're
Naked - Naked - Naked - Naked
