Feel the Break

Dry Kill Logic

You remember, I will always
See you for the liar you are
And if I were gone tomorrow
Then finally you would see all my scarsThis won't get the best of me
Won't try to even listen to me
You keep clinging on to me but I feel my sanity drain
And I feel the break, I can feel the break, IYou remember, I will always See you for the liar you are
And if I were gone tomorrow
Then finally you would see all my scarsThis won't get the best of me
Won't try to even listen to me
You keep clinging on to me but I feel my sanity drain
And I feel the break, I can feel the break, I
I can feel the breakAnd I know what's to follow
Never before was the truth hard to follow
In your own self-doubt you will wallow
Now it's my timeYou remember I will always See you for the liar I know you are Even when I try I cannot seem to find
One good reason why I should believe your liesAnd I feel the break, I can feel the break, ICan feel the break and I know what's to follow
Never before was the truth hard to swallow
In your own self-doubt you will wallow
Now I don't have the time
