

Beach Balls

Billy Talent

"Do it again", she said to me
So I nailed my hand to the baseboard floor
Hysterically, laughing at me
She begged the question and I begged for more
Now I water, the thorn you rammed
Deep into my side, watch it fertilize
'Cause you shoved your finger right down my throat
And you made me puke up all of my pride
Pop the beach balls, burn the photos
C-4 your safe and you'll never grow old
So get out of dodge and become a thought
'Cause once youre a thought, hopefully you're forgot
If we break up, dont write a song that would Drag my name through the shit, the mud
'Cause Ive seen some solid swimmers who drowned
When you unleashed the dam and cause the flood
But with free choice there comes freewill
And Im so happy she decided to leave
'Cause now Im alone the demons come home
And now my pen is rolling up its sleeve
Pop the beach balls, burn the photos
C-4 your safe and you'll never grow old
So get out of dodge and become a thought
'Cause once youre a thought, hopefully you're forgot
Pop the beach balls, burn the photos
C-4 your safe and you'll never grow old
So get out of dodge and become a thought
'Cause once youre a thought, hopefully you're forgot
Because my morals have begun to decay
And all my friends have the same thing to say
They say that good times have faded away
They say that their all worried about me
'Cause I feed birds in the cemetery
And I rake leaves off the grass in my grave
Because my memory lane is now paved
(Nothing is wrong) My memory lane is now paved
(Theres nothing wrong)
My memory lane is now paved
(Nothing is wrong)
My memory lane is now paved (Theres nothing wrong)
But now my memorys back and theres nothing wrong
Theres nothing wrong, theres nothing
