

California Heaven (feat. ScHoolboy Q)

JAHKOY

[Intro: Rico Love]

Turn the lights on[Verse 1: JAHKOY]

Seems like all these girls are perfect

 All these girls are perfect

 In LA, in LA

They've got so much there to purchase

 All those labels on their purses

 In LA, in LA

[Pre-Chorus: JAHKOY]

 You ain't gotta die

 Just go buy you a plane ticket

 (plane ticket, pla-plane ticket)

 This place will change your life

 Ask the guys who just came to visit

Once they came, they just can't go nowhere[Chorus: JAHKOY]

 Heaven must be somewhere in California

 No place I've seen compares to California

 There's nothing but angels out there

 A place filled with angels i swear

 They say come and join us

 The weathers much warmer

 Heaven's california

Heaven's california[Verse 2: ScHoolBoy Q]

 Yao

 Blank face, amazing grace

 God damn girl, Got Got Got Damn girl

 Use your angel wings, no hands girl

 I'm the man from the land girl

 Go ham in the lab girl

 You know skrt skrt

 And if you skrt skrt

 Give me work work

 Thats missionary like church church

 Legs open like pearly gates in a Thug mansion

 Get a thug passion

 Without Alize

 Bow down to pray

 I burn an ounce a day

 Puff puff pass

No rosaries like Catholics
Might cop the rolls, just to crash it
You could rock the rollie while I hit it
Hey you could rock the rollie while I hit it
 Yeah school boy in a new toy
 With a new toy, a whole down fig
 You was looking for heaven and you found it
You was looking for heaven and you found it[Chorus: JAHKOY]
 Heaven must be somewhere in California
 No place I've seen compares to California
 There's nothing but angels out there
 A place filled with angels i swear
 They say come and join us
 The weathers much warmer
 Heaven's california
 Heaven's california[Verse 3: JAHKOY]
 Man they party on the week days (count it)
 Party on the week days (count it, count it, count it, count it)
 In LA, in LA
 I swear they know all the DJs
 Walk in the club and don't pay
 Man they must be so paid
 Okay, in LA
 They poppin in LA[Pre-Chorus: JAHKOY]
 You ain't gotta die
 Just go buy you a plane ticket
 (plane ticket, pla-plane ticket)
 This place will change your life
 Ask the guys who just came to visit
Once they came, they just can't go nowhere[Chorus: JAHKOY]
 Heaven must be somewhere in California
 No place I've seen compares to California
 There's nothing but angels out there
 A place filled with angels i swear
 They say come and join us
 The weathers much warmer
 Heaven's californiaThey say come and join us
 The weathers much warmer
 Heaven's california
 Heaven's california
