

As You Are

Rag'n'Bone Man

You raised the lights when it was frightening
You calmed the storm when it was rising
You found me there where I was hiding
All I have is here and now If the ground beneath our feet has disappeared
I'll be here beside you, always be right near you
Remember me, won't you? I know we've all got our problems
And it's a blessing that we made it here so far
If you lay here in these arms tonight I promise
I promise to take you, take you as you are When I was reaching out in the dark
When the streets below just looked so far
When I forgot everything that I was
All I needed was your love If the earth beneath our feet is old and caves in
For a second we will fight
When it's late in the evening, don't let me go, dear I know we've all got our problems
And it's a blessing that we made it here so far
And if you lay here in these arms tonight I promise
I promise to take you, take you as you are Take you as you are, as you are Take you as you are, as you are Take you as you are, as you are, ooh (as you are)
As you are I know we've all got our problems
And it's a blessing that we made it here so far
And if you lay here in these arms tonight I promise (I promise)
I promise to take you, take you as you are I know we've all got our problems
And it's a blessing that we made it here so far
If you lay here in these arms tonight I promise
I promise to take you, take you as you are (oh, Lord)

Songwriters

RORY CHARLES GRAHAM, JONNY COFFER, JAMIE SCOTT Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S.
Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>