

How Many Times, How Many Lies

The Pussycat Dolls

They would try to tell me something
Oh but I was hearing nothing
When they said you was playing me
I didn't listen
I didn't want to
You couldn't find a blinder fool
I'm here
Searching through the wreckage
Wondering why the message never got through
And I've found
I misplaced all my faith
How could I put my faith in you? Oh

CHORUS

How many times?
How many lies?
How long you been sneakin?
How long you creepin' around?
Hoy many lies?
How many times
Were you here deceiving
While I was here believing in you?

I gotta put the blame on myself
Shoulda known with everyone else
Just knowin they knew you was just bad news
I shoulda walked out
I shoulda seen clear
Glad you sad ass is outta here
I've gone
Thrown out all the records
All the ones that ever reminded me of you
I've gone
And tore up all the pictures
Cause there was not one shred of truth
No oh

CHORUS

There were so many times

There were so many lies
I don't know why I stayed around
There were so many days
There were so many games
I shoulda thrown your sad ass out
But now the game is though
I'll never trust in you
I finally got wise
I opened up my eyes, the game is over

I've gone
Thrown out all the records
All the ones that ever reminded me of you
I've gone
And tore up all the pictures
Cause there was not one shred of truth
No no no

Whoa
No
Yeah yeah oh
I opened up my eyes
Whoa
Whoa
Yeah
