

Holes Inside

Joe Brooks

When all that you've tried leaves nothing but holes inside
It seems like you're wired
Stay here held in tie
Cause nothing seems to change
Oh no
No nothing's gonna change at all
I can see it in your face
Your hope has gone away
If you hold tight
Shadows will be lost in the light oh
Cause sometimes fate and your dreams will collide
So don't walk away from me
Don't walk away from me
Don't walk away from me
Your feet are stuck
No they cannot move
Don't tell me that they're glued
You're sure not far from
At home at ease
but give some time to breathe
Cause nothing seems to change oh no
No nothing's gonna change at all
I can see it in your face the hope has gone away
But if we hold tight shadows will be lost in the light
Oh cause sometimes fate and your dreams will collide
So don't walk away from me
Don't walk away from me
Don't walk away from me
Oh cause everything will be okay
I know that it's so easy to say
Bt the pain inside will fade
Please tell me that you'll stay
If we hold tight shadows will be lost in the light
Cause sometimes fate and your dreams will collide
And all that you've tried
Leaves nothing but holes inside
