Leave Me Lonely

Tim Gallagher

Lips don't move.
Not even a sound.
But your face says a thousand words,
I don't wanna hear.

Paid my price,
Still in debt,
The secrets I kept,
That you don't wanna hear.

And all of your friends suggest,
They don't know me.
Say its for the best.
They see you only.
Don't leave me lonely.

We'll exchange, each other's clothes.
But not a word was spoken.
So how come my mouths dry?

Should it end like this,
Not after all we built.
Don't let it tumble down
On a bed of lies.

And now your eyes suggest,
This ain't a smoke screen.
Both your hands are kept, where you can't hold me.
They're leaving me lonely.

Hand are tied, won't change your mind.
I won't give up
And if I leave today, hoping I'll pray, to sleep it off.
Please sleep it off. (2x)
Sleep it off. (2x)

And all your friends suggest,
They don't know me.
The only thing they detect, is you coming home with me.

And both our eyes have wept and my vision is blurry.
As I stumble, out the door.
I won't be back in a hurry.
She's leaving me lonely.

Lyrics Submitted by A. Gaines

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/