

Dead Man Walking

The Nerve Agents

The sun is going down on you my friend
I look around to see you
The self destructive entity
Embodied in self pity and hate
All that's left for you now is to suffocate
All I see of you now is a dead man walking
Death lurks inside of you now
Dead man walking
To the pills and needle you have bowed
Dead man walking
I'll say goodbye to you now
Dead mean walking
Make no mistake, you chose the route
You stole from your friends, lied your way around
All you were, long gone, no more
Just a junkie stands, with a hallow core
Don't you dare ever think, that this song is here
To glorify your sickness
It's for those with futures
