[Chorus x2]

It don't matter if ur black red latino or asian
Man, woman, Jamaican or Haitian
Rich, poor, yellow, brown or Caucasian
Join the movement, make a change, every single nation

[Verse 1]

Its not about what u been thru or what u earn
Its about where ur goin and what did u learn
Everybodys got a hell they can feel it burn
It is all in ur mind baby don't let the table turn

Cause what u put out it comes right back
Reapin whatcha sow u shoot expect the click clack
U steer um wrong u bout to go off track
U generous believe ull watch the green stack

Like the gods say get the money teach the kids
And if u do it righteously then their soul will give police whilin terrorism aint just oversees Itâ€™s in the streets and fast food joints and on TV

tides change, 11th hour, out the truck
March with your fellow man take a stand, times up
The war is every where we justa bout outta luck
Indigo babies are here its time stand up

[Chorus x2]

It don't matter is ur black red latino or asian
Man woman Jamaican or Haitian
Rich poor yellow brown or Caucasian

Join the movement, make a change, every single nation

[Verse 2]

We are killing mother earth she is crying
Can you feel the temperature rise she is dying
Government watching every move yeah they be spying
Sometime it feels like it ain't even worth trying

But Ill be stealin from the rich and giving to the poor
I am done with all this bullshit I can't take it no more
Hunger everywhere do you know the death toll
Watchin the news with half the story and im feelin swole

The ying and yang imbalance it has been the way
Women have been put up in their place each and everyday
White boys in power fucked up in each and every way
I love the penis but damn their points the wrong way
Strait to their head testosterone led us astray
We gotta let feminine return here what I say
Men listen close give us a chance no delay
We aint no rib bone see we is gonna save the day.

[Chorus x2]

It don't matter if ur black red latino or asian
Man, woman, Jamaican or Haitian
Rich, poor, yellow, brown or Caucasian
Join the movement, make a change, every single nation

Wake the fuck up whatchu doin
R u makin a change watchu pursuing
Don't u realize all the violence brewin
Reflects all of the negativity in that booin
All the hatin gotta stop love ur brother
Perpetratin every drop respect ur mother
Why u waiting teach one another
U can fly high there is no need to hover

[Chorus x2]

It don't matter if ur black red latino or asian
Man, woman, Jamaican or Haitian
Rich, poor, yellow, brown or Caucasian
Join the movement, make a change, every single nation
