Mister Asylum

Highly Suspect

My heart is pounding
I don't wanna be in my skin
And everybody
Everybody's trying to get in
AgainI feel like I'm ready to blow
When you're up against the world it shows
Baby I knowHey Mister Asylum
Won't you let me in?
Oh Mister Asylum
I'm dying to get in
To get inThe truth is that I can't breathe,
And I can't feel, and I can't move,
But I can see
So where am I now?
Is this Hell? I can't tell
It's getting hotter
And I'm starting to think maybe that
There is no God
At least not one I complain to
To come down and save me
And I'm losing my shit
Something is brokenI feel like I'm ready to blow
When you're up against the world it shows
Baby I knowHey Mister Asylum
Won't you let me in?
Oh Mister Asylum
I'm dying to get in
(To get in)Well I'm out here
Drowning and surrounded by
An ocean of emotion and
This can't be real
Cause this feeling I'm feeling
Got me reeling and I'm dying again so
Where did she go?
Of course she left me such a long time,
Such a long time ago and I'm
Losing my shit
Maybe I'm brokenI need her now
More than ever before

It's turned into a war
I won't swallow your pills
I'll spit back out
She's my resuscitation
My love in her mouth
So where do we go?I feel like I'm ready to blow
Won't you let me in?
I'm dying to get inMister Asylum
Won't you let me in?
Mister Asylum
