

Sink or Swim

Dikta

red lights are flashing bright air filled with broken glass the river never ends but you won't listen your back against the wall and everybody fades your face against the floor but still not listening hey! can't you hear what i'm saying? hey! this is where we are staying
hey! can't you hear what i'm saying?
if you see right through me can you see how i feel?
