

Jezebel

Oceanspeak

Jealous of the stars
And I'm wondering how
They keep from falling

Oh, there one goes
Who would have known
They could fall too

Oooh Oooh

Oh, and you; you've been you've been warned
Cause lovin' you
Is not okay- okay
and this is the way
I will say "okay, I'm leaving you baby"
But my feet gotta walk away

Hey Jezebel, I've had enough
Of all your bickering-enough
Cause after all, I want to know

Is this the way that I will say goodbye to you?

Mother, have you a son?
And is this your family?
Does that make them proud of me?
And father, have you a gun?
And can your weary eyes see the man in me
And pull the trigger?
