Copper Red

Sierra Swan

Copper red, am I dead
Flashing lights, out of sights
Wasted times, troubled minds
All I know, I don't knowI'm alone, in a daze
But you won't cry for me
If I show, who I am
Then you will cry for me
You will cry for meSitting on this broken glass that I threw myself
Tangled insecurities where I like to dwell
Ignoring my impurities with one more glass of wine
Seeping through this melody deep within my vinesAt this night, against the wall
Tear through my skin, get rid of it allTrapped in my head
But you won't cry for me
So I laugh instead
'Cause you won't cry for me
You won't cry for meCopper red, am I dead
Flashing lights, out of sights
Wasted times, troubled minds
All I know, I don't knowOh, don't you worry, this critical situation
I'm in no hurry to receive your adulationCopper red
Copper redCopper red, am I dead
Flashing lights, out of sights
Wasted times, troubled minds
All I know, I don't knowCopper red, am I dead
Flashing lights, out of sights
Wasted times, troubled minds
All I know, I don't know
