Everything's Wrong

Crossfade

It hurts to be alone In this cell I call my home But it heals me in my mind Without you by my sideI feel so down and out And you never knew that about me, yeah And we fought this all way And now I know it was no mistake But it's all goneNothing feels good anymore Everything's wrong, yeah Nothing feels right anymoreI'm a slave to my anger Everything holds me down So I won't try anymore But it's alrightI left without a plan I knew you would not understand It all builds up to this day Made it too hard along the wayI felt so full of doubt And the thought of running out kills me And I kept it close to home But I love being all alone But it's all goneNothing feels good anymore Everything's wrong, yeah Nothing feels right anymoreI'm a slave to my anger Everything holds me down So I won't try anymoreI'm still hangin' on And I've tried so hard for you And I'm still holdin' on And I've tried my best for youOhh, nothing feels good anymore Everything's wrong, yeah Nothing feels right anymoreI'm a slave to my anger Everything holds me down So I won't try anymore But it's alright
