

Defenseless

Forever Came Calling

I just can't face myself alone, alone, alone
I opened the window to let the breeze know
I need to feel at home
It happened it did, her dress it slid
Deciding to kiss the floorboards again
She now stands motionless and naked
I glimpsed the edge but couldn't take it, take it

I feel so defenseless
Don't think that I wouldn't
But never meant it
I swear I can mend this

I've got a little bit of courage
And a head full of smoke
Let's see how far I can take this
I've got to focus now on everything
That what matters most

Let's see how far I can take this

To gain perspective, stand on edges
Same mistakes I'll never make again

To gain perspective, stand on edges
Same mistakes I'll never make again

I found the man I thought I was Learned inside a cheap hotel
A borrowed buzz
Still couldn't bring myself to feel that rush
Stomach spilled, I still got my guts
You brought me in with confidence
Assuming I would cave to hips
And kiss your lips
My father told me honest men
Can lie again
And nothings broken you can't fix

I feel so defenseless

Donâ€™t think that I wouldn't

No, I never meant it

I swear I can mend this

Iâ€™ve got a little bit of courage

And a head full of smoke

Lets see how far I can take this

Iâ€™ve got to focus now on everything

That what matters most

Lets see how far I can take this

To gain perspective, stand on edges

Same mistakes Iâ€™ll never make again

To gain perspective, stand on edges

Same mistakes Iâ€™ll never make again

I fell asleep on the floor again

What did you expect?

I fell asleep on the floor again

What did you expect?

Well Iâ€™m so defenseless

But never meant it

I swear I can mend this

Iâ€™ve got a little bit of courage

And a head full of smoke

Iâ€™ve got to focus now on everything

That what matters most

Gain perspective

Youâ€™re not true til tested.

To gain perspective, stand on edges

Same mistakes Iâ€™ll never make

Same mistakes Iâ€™ll never make again
