Guilty (one In A Million)

Human Nature

I'm ready, yeah, yeah
We got nothing to be guilty of our love
It's one in a million, oh, one in a million
You know I knew you were the one when I saw your eyes
Even though your lifestyle looked kind of occupied
I never once thought twice about the way I feel
And the woman that I am I thought I?d keep it real
But then you sent me love letters saying love me today
Tall stem roses saying baby let's run away
I was mesmerized thinking that you want me to stay
And I couldn?t quiet say the words I wanted to say, yeah
From the day that I saw your face, girl
You didn?t need to hide I could see you were lonely
Even though you gave your heart to another
Well, it hurts even more to see you cry
Now there's nothing wrong
'Cause I know that it's been too long since you felt love
I want to take you out of this place
We can find a space well
We got nothing to be guilty of our love its one in a million
So, girl, let's ride tonight on a highway to the sky, oh yeah
Don?t wanna hear goodbye
It was paralyzing running in the sand
Holding hands and the candle light dinners
Proved that you were my man
Now I can?t deny just how I feel inside
I?m in ecstasy every time you get next to me
You tell me that you?re lucky and I tell you back
Now I?m here to stay, baby boy and it?s a fact
That nothing could compare to the times we share a
And the love that we made was a sweet, sweet thing
We got nothing to be guilty of our love, it's one in a million
So, girl, let's ride tonight on a highway to the sky
I wanna ride ride, don?t want to hear goodbye
We got nothing to be guilty of
At any time because we making love
We got nothing to be guilty of
We got nothing, we got nothing
We got nothing to be guilty of

At any time because we making love
We got nothing to be guilty of
We got nothing, we got nothing
From the day that I saw your face, girl
You didn?t need to hide I could see you were lonely
Even though you gave your heart to another
Well, it hurts even more to see you cry
Now there's nothing wrong
'Cause I know that it's been too long since you felt love
I want to take you out of this place
We can find a space well
No need to be guilty, baby
There's no need to be guilty, babe
No need to be guilty, baby
There's no need to be guilty, babe
