

In My Head

Klokwize

I'm reaching out without a sound
My pride falls to the floor again
Inside my mind I search to find
 A place just to call my own
 Deep inside Your eyes
 I am blinded by Your love
Still I run so far just to find that
 I'm alone again
 In my head, I hear You calling me
And I can't run 'cause there's nothing left for me
 When I fall You always follow me deep inside
 Deep inside, deep inside of my head

I just can't last as these feelings pass
 Once again I hide the pain inside
The smile wears thin and the lies begin
 To bring me down again
When I run I run so far away from You
I hide the pain and all the lies deep inside again
 And all my faith I put in You
 This time You take it all away
 Inside my head
 Deep inside
 My head
