

EYE OF THE STORM

September Mourning

What do you think that you can take from me
When solid gold is dripping from the sun
Black hole eyes, an empty soul
I cannot bleed, you cannot hold me
Fighting in a war that's never won
Can you feel the calm
It's right before the storm
Escape from all your darker days
Follow me I'll lead the way back home
We are the soldiers of your destiny
Fighting for the worthless and the damned
Mortal life, a fragile soul
Broken bones, eternal silence
Death has always know who I am
Can you feel the calm
It's right before the storm
Escape from all your darker days
Follow me I'll lead the way back home
Can you feel it all around you
Can you feel it all around you
Darkness
Can you feel the calm
It's right before the storm
Escape from all your darker days
Follow me I'll lead the way back
Promise you I'll lead the way back home
Can you feel it all around you
Can you feel it all around you
