Unfurnished

Lagwagon

The TV broke
My cheeks are soaked
The drink is empty
And now everything i hate my lowest day
It's all the same It's all the same i wish for one day im free from all this tragedy
And it's always been magoty
In another love
i never made questioned him
right or wrong
In a see of failure he's numb
Upstairs disgust
Small words cut through what once was their trust
And then he gots everything he wants
Silent treatement
She's out of breath
There's no one left around He will have regret when there is nothing left to say
And it's alway been on
In another born sick love
Never made him question
right or wrong
In a see of failure he's numb
It's already killed me
That's aleready killed me
It's already been there That's nothing new
I overdosed
I dug an hole
I buried them and died with you
In a sea of failure and I am numb
