That's How I Know

B4-4

My friends ask me when it comes to giving you my heart
How can I be sure? 'Cause they see how fast we Filled up all the empty parts in my soul and yours
When I answer it erases their doubts
'Cause the truth comes out when I'm miles away
And I still feel your touch when I make mistakes
And no one gives up when you're in my arms
Baby, you're still not close enough
That's how I know it's love, it's love just like they are
I'm amazed I found someone made just for me
Ooh, your love so far, tell me I would be a fool not to believe
That I've been given a gift in this life
I must have done something right when I'm miles away
And I still feel your touch when I make mistakes
And no one gives up when you're in my arms
Baby you're still not close enough
That's how I know it's love, now I now what forever's for Each day I want you more when I'm miles away
And I still feel your touch when I make mistakes
And no one gives up when you're in my arms
Baby you're still not close enough
That's how I know it's love, that's how I know it's love
