The Rising

Dallas Stars

The Rising

We're walking out, our heads are high
Anticipation, win or die
It's in the air
The masses are yearning

It's time to clash, it's time for war
This is a fight worth fighting for
Right here tonight
My fire is burning

We won't stop fighting 'til we win
We won't stop fighting 'til we win
Everyone stand up again
'Cause this is the rising
This is the rising
Everyone stand up again
'Cause this is the rising

Unchain the beast, hear the roar
We won't back down, we'll come back for more
Want some of me?
Well, come and get it

We won't stop fighting 'til we win
We won't stop fighting 'til we win
Everyone stand up again
'Cause this is the rising
This is the rising
This is the rising
Everyone stand up again
'Cause this is the rising

We won't stop fighting
We won't stop fighting
We won't stop fighting
We won't, we won't

We won't stop fighting 'til we win

Nothing else matters in the end
The rain of grief begins
'Cause this is the rising

This is the rising
This is the rising
Everyone stand up again
'Cause this is the rising

We won't stop fighting
We won't stop fighting
We won't stop fighting
We won't, we won't
