

This Evening's Great Excuse

Seven Mary Three

Time will pack a bag on you, my love organize, re-organize your Luck Pretty face, a pretty smile, a pretty shame you can't defile
The message you have made for them to see And it will be
And it will be
H why P O see are I S why HYPOCRISY This evening's great excuse is this:
To make your peace.
And make a list of everything that's trivial and wide Handshake man, how could you be?
A sweeter, softer, gentler king Spread out for every queen to see
