

Against The Grain

Kenn Starr

I have tried but it's hard to fight it
I can't just watch as it falls apart
 If we could break the mold
 Make it in from the cold
Lose your mind, never lose your heart
 And I don't mind working hard for it
I'll bend the hands 'til the space appears
 I'll move the pieces until we all fit
 From near to far and from far to near
 And I know
 That I'm going against the grain
 And I know this makes no sense
 The changes I've tried to make
 They make no difference
 But I know that I'll try again
 Although it's so hard
 Hard
 Hard
 Given time it'll finally focus
 And in a moment that's been and gone
 And in the afterglow
 From my head to my soul
 I can see all I have ignored
 And I don't mind working hard for it
I'll bend the hands 'til the space appears
 I'll move the pieces until we all fit
 From near to far and from far to near

 And I know
 That I'm going against the grain
 And I know this makes no sense
 The changes I've tried to make
 They make no difference
 But I know that I'll try again
 Although it's so hard
 Hard
 Hard
 If life's so short then we're wasting time
 Love is the last thing on our minds

It's so simple but so hard to see
And you are not alone in this
Sense of loss and loneliness
Take your shoes off run towards the sea
And I know
That I'm going against the grain
And I know this makes no sense
The changes I've tried to make
They make no difference
But I know that I'll try again
Although it's so hard
Hard
Hard
I know the sun will keep on shining down
As long as you're around
