Boomerang

Miniature Tigers

Throw your boomerang, boomerang.
Throw yourself away
I was born as a mystic
Something in my head?s not right
And the same thing keeps me up at night
See the moon and feel nothing
Waxing crescent on your thighs
Don?t know where I?ll end up tonight
Ohh, never gonna let you down, down, down, down.....

I beg for you to send them away
You only want to disobey me.
Throw your boomerang, boomerang
Throw yourself away.

I pretend to adore you
Hanging on your every line until I get my poison in your mind
I?m a witch and a gremlin,
You?re at home watchin' Snick at night
So innocent and terrified
Ohh, never gonna let you down, down, down, down.....

I beg for you to send them away
You only want to disobey me
Throw your boomerang, boomerang
Throw yourself away-way-way, away-way-way, away-way-way, away-way-way

You slammed the arcadian door on me in a storm so loud,
I'm in a peaceful sea
I hope that you're not too locked in your ways it feels just like I'm drowning in the waves
Whoa, never gonna let you down, down, down, down.....

I beg for you to send them away
You only want to disobey me
Throw your boomerang, boomerang
Throw yourself away-way-way.
