

No Woman

Blaine Larsen

Five hours of football one afternoon
Three nights of poker dragging in past two
Four years of trying to make it last
Even a fool could do the math No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you One of seven boxes, one Uhaul truck
Three brawny men a loadin' it up
One thousand "I'm sorry's" ten minutes too late
One fed up girl on the interstate No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you Congratulations Einstein
Look at what you've done
You've solved the equation
For two minus one No woman is gonna hang around
For some man who can't figure it out
Do the numbers, it all adds up to
No woman, no woman for you
No woman, no woman for you
